The Coordinator initiated the meeting with a warm welcome of all the members and briefed them about the objectives of the Anti-Ragging Cell.

The guidelines of Honorable Supreme Court with respect to Ragging in educational institutions were presented by the Coordinator:

- Ragging has several aspects with, among others, psychological, social, political, economic, cultural, and academic dimensions.
- Any act that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of a student should be considered within the academics related aspect of ragging; similarly, exploiting the services of a junior student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of seniors is also an aspect of academics related ragging prevalent in many institutions, particularly in technical institutions.
- Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a junior student by senior students should be considered an aspect of ragging under economic dimensions.
- Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestured, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person can be put in the category of ragging with criminal dimensions.
- Any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, mails, blogs, public insults should be considered within the psychological aspects of ragging. This aspect would also include deriving perverted pleasure, sadistic thrill by actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to others; the absence of preparing 'fresher's in the run up to their admission to higher education and life in hostels also can be ascribed as a psychological aspect of ragging-copying skills in interaction with seniors or strangers can be impacted by parents as well. Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of students also can be described in terms of the psychological aspects of ragging.

- The human rights perspective of ragging involves the injury caused to the fundamental right of human dignity through humiliation heaped on junior students by seniors; often resulting in the extreme step of suicide by the victims.

He also read the actions which shall be taken against students for indulging and abetting in Ragging as per the guidelines:

1. The punishment to be meted out to the persons indulged in ragging has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents. The students who are found to be indulged in ragging should be debarred from taking admission in any technical institution in India.
2. For every single incident of ragging a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities.
3. Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Anti-Ragging Committee of the institution, the possible punishments for those found guilty of ragging at the institution level shall be any one or any combination of the following:
  - a. Cancellation of admission
  - b. Suspension from attending classes
  - c. Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits
  - d. Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation processes
  - e. Withholding results
  - f. Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc.
  - g. Suspension/expulsion from the hostel
  - h. Rustication from the institution
  - i. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution.
  - j. Collective punishment: when the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential raggers.

HOD ESH informed that important information related to Anti-Ragging guidelines will be communicated to first year students during their orientation session and regular classes.

The Chairperson informed all the members to special take care of first year students and information should be communicated to them on regular basis so that the guidelines will be followed strictly.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the coordinator to the members present.
